Minister's Message

Nenju

The other day, one of our member asked me to repair his Nenju. I was very happy to help repair his Nenju but unfortunately I was not able to repair right away. I asked him to wait for a while. His Nenju is made with beautiful Bodhitree seeds. Nenju is a circle of beads carried in the left hand or worn on the wrist to remind us of our blind passions. Nenju are made with sphere shaped wood, gem stones, seeds, plastic etc.

One day someone asked me; Some people call them "Nenju" or "O-nenju" and others call them "Juzu" or "O-Juzu". Are they the same?

In some Buddhist traditions and other religious traditions, the "Nenju" or "Juzu" is used for counting how many times a person recites something such as Mantra. "Ju" means "bead" and "zu" means "counter".

However, in our Shin tradition, since we do not use the "Juzu" as an aid for meditation or chanting, we should refer to it as a "nen-ju" : nen (mindful/thinking) + ju (beads) = beads to keep us mindful of the Buddha. "O" is honorific prefix.

The traditional strand of the nenju will have 108 beads, but today, most Ministers and lay members will carry an abbreviated version with fewer beads for easier carrying. The number of beads is insignificant, however, traditionally, the number of beads on the shorter strands have been in numbers evenly divisible into 108 (usually 54 or 27). Different denominations and traditions have different styles and tassels. I always suggest to people to find perfect size for his or her daily use. Honpa Hongwanji HQ Book store has several different size nenju. Please call office if you want try.

When carrying the nenju in your hand, you should carry it in your left hand. If you're wearing a wrist-style nenju, you should also wear this on your left hand.

Why should we wear or carry the nenju or wrist nenju on our left hand?

In the Asian tradition almost every action and aspect of anything has a special meaning. If you look at the traditional Hongwanji altar or your home Butsudan, the flowers are placed to the left and the candle is placed on the right side. The left side represents the world of samsara, the world we live in. The flowers as beautiful as they are on the altar are dying at that very moment (just as we are). The candle light represents the light of Buddha's wisdom (teaching).

In the same manner, the left hand represents the world of samsara and the right hand represents the world of Amida Buddha. When we place our hands together in Gassho with the nenju beads surrounding our hands, our two hands (representing the world of samsara and the world of enlightenment) come together as one within the realm of Namo Amida Butsu.

Therefore, the nenju (modified or in its original form with 108 beads representing the 108 egotistical desires of humans), should be worn on the left hand as a reminder of the world of samsara we all exist within.

Of course, if a person get hard time to carry things with left hand, then it is perfectly acceptable to wear or carry the nenju on the right hand.

Nenju should be treated with the utmost respect at all times. At home, it should be kept in a special place, such as in a drawer near the family altar.

If you have broken nenju, please come to see me or call office for repair.

In Gassho,
Rev. Shawn K. Yagi

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi everyone,

I hope that you are in good spirits. Well, we survived a hectic summer and early fall. It was extremely busy, even for those of us who are used to helping once or twice a week around the temple. August was Bon Dance. Then the State Lay Association Convention was held in September, followed by our Aiea Hongwanji Mission 115th Anniversary in October.

The theme for our 115th Celebration was “Remember, Reflect and Renew”. We were honored to have Bishop Eric Matsumoto and the Oahu ministers participate in the program on Saturday. Hawaii Kyodan President Pieper Toyama also participated on Saturday. Tri-chairs Russell, Lynnette and George worked and planned for over a year to bring the celebration to life. Thank you.

We were very fortunate that Rev. Kanya Okamoto, retired minister from the Tri-State Denver Buddhist Temple was able to attend. Rev. Okamoto has a nice way of looking at our every day experiences and describing them relative to Buddhists concepts. He has a wealth of experiences and shared them with the audience. Rev. Okamoto shared this thought with the audience: it really is a gift to be able to hear the Buddha’s Teachings. He especially encouraged our young parents to continue to bring their children to the temple because it is such a precious gift to hear the Buddha’s Teachings.

Thank you to everyone who helped over the past 3 or so months. Thanks to Rev. Yagi for his planning and ministerial assistance especially with GoMonshu’s visit to Aiea and with our Aiea Hongwanji Mission 115th Celebration. Thank you to our AHM Board of Directors, Buddhist Women’s Association, Hoshu Gang, Sr. YBA, Jr. YBA and Dharma School for helping all along the way. Our affiliated organizations such as the Judo Club helped tremendously. Please pardon me if I left anyone out, but thanks to everyone for contributing.

We might consider the AHM Hawaiian Dinner a kind of thank you to everyone. Yes, we will still work hard. But it is a relaxing event that everyone enjoys. Thank you again to Ito who will spearhead the event. Hope to see you on Saturday, November 18th!

Listen to the Buddhist teaching, even if you must take time out from your daily business. To believe that you will listen when you have some spare time is shallow thinking. There is no tomorrow in listening to the teaching. Rennyō Shonin

Gassho,

Warren Tamamoto

2017-2018 Social Concerns Fund Drive. We celebrate gratitude in the month of November. The Thanksgiving holiday and the Eitaikyo observance are reminders of the countless blessings in our lives and how we live deeply connected to the world around us. It is in this spirit of gratitude that we begin our Annual Social Concerns Fund Drive.

Through the generous contributions of Sangha members, the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii is able to support worthy organizations and programs with funding to continue their work in our community. Your support also allows us to provide compassionate action during times of disaster and the ability to respond to social issues affecting our community.

Because of your commitment to promoting the Buddhist values of compassion and loving kindness, we are able to lend our support to such organizations as the Sunrise Foundation (Journey to Wellness VI), the Pahoia Nikkei Jin Kai (Cemetery Renovation Project), the United Way of Greater Houston (Hurricane Harvey disaster relief), and various food banks on each island.

The Golden Chain Grant program was established to promote compassionate action through innovative community service projects. Your generosity directly helps those in need and promotes a more humane world.

Please use the enclosed envelope to mail your donation checks payable to Aiea Hongwanji Mission. The Treasurer will then make one combined check to the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii. The suggested donation is the cost of just one meal per person. Your kokuia is greatly appreciated. Please continue to support the Annual Social Concerns Fund Drive. Mahalo!

2017 ANNUAL MINISTER'S LAY ASSISTANT RETREAT HELD AT KAMUELA HONGWANJI.

The purpose of the annual retreat is to review and enrich the knowledge of the participants in the rituals and traditions of the Nishi Hongwanji, General Buddhism and Shin Buddhism.

All the knowledge and skills associated with functioning as a Minister's Lay Assistant (MLA) is covered during the retreat. The retreat is an opportunity to learn and/or refresh one's skills and knowledge that is associated with the role of a MLA but does not necessarily lead to certification. This retreat can be taken as many times as it remains meaningful and helpful to the participant.

The Facilitator/Instructors for this year's retreat were Rev. Shingo Furusawa, Rev. Toshiyuki Umitani and Rev. Kevin Kuniyuki. The special speaker on the role and responsibilities of an MLA was Dexter Mar, a certified MLA for Hawaii Betsuin.

Participants were Constance Fay, Honokaa Hongwanji; Warren Higuchi, Kamuela Hongwanji; Margie Kaiser, Kohala Hongwanji; Arlene Kawabata, Kamuela Hongwanji; Jodi Manabe Kobayashi, Kamuela Hongwanji; Robert Kobzi, Naalehu Hongwanji; Frederick Nonaka, Kamuela Hongwanji; Miles Okumura, Honokaa Hongwanji; Ross Perrins, Honokaa Hongwanji; Craig Shimoda, Puna Hongwanji; Earl Tanaka, Honokaa Hongwanji; Tracy Tsuha, Honomu Hongwanji; and Lockey White, Paauilo Hongwanji.

We are hoping most of the participants will continue to work with their mentor ministers to work towards becoming a Certified MLA. For those who are curious, if after working with their mentor minister for a few years, if the mentor minister feels that the individual is ready for certification, he or she then writes a letter of recommendation to the Bishop. Then if the Bishop agrees with the mentor minister, the Bishop will certify the individual as a Certified MLA. So, we wish the best for the participants and their mentor ministers: Rev. Shingo Furusawa, Rev. Shinji Kawagoe and Rev. Satoshi Tomioka!

PROJECT DANA SELECTS CYNDI OSAJIMA AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR; MS. OSAJIMA SUCCEEDS FOUNDING PROJECT ADMINISTRATOR, ROSE NAKAMURA. Effective Oct 1, 2017, Cyndi Osajima became Executive Director of Project Dana, succeeding Founding Project Administrator Rose Nakamura who has led Project Dana since its beginning in 1989.

Cyndi Osajima has been a staff member of Project Dana for 25 years and the Volunteer Project Coordinator for 24 years. For the past year, she also has been Operations Manager. Ms. Osajima has been responsible for the recruitment and training of volunteers and for matching them with persons needing Project Dana's assistance. She received her B.A. in Sociology from California State University, Los Angeles, and a Master's degree in Public Health with sub-specialization in Gerontology from Univ. of Hawaii Manoa.

Ms. Osajima's passion for serving the elderly and disabled -- providing them with support services that allow them to live independently and with dignity -- has been a hallmark of her tenure with Project Dana. She is committed to continuing the legacy of "Dana" or "selfless giving without expectation for recognition or reward" that was established by the late Shimeji Kanazawa and Rose Nakamura.

About Project Dana. Founded in 1989 by the late Shimeji Kanazawa and the Moiliili Hongwanji Mission, Project Dana is an interfaith volunteer caregiving project focused on meeting the needs of the frail elderly and the disabled in Hawaii. Currently, through Project Dana, services are provided to more than 1200 elders and disabled clients in the State of Hawaii by nearly 1000 volunteers statewide. Services include telephone visits, transportation, minor home repairs, light housekeeping, home safety assessments and education, respite services, and family caregivers' support. Project Dana has partnership relationships with more than 150 public and non-profit organizations.

Congratulations to Dr. Ben! Congratulations to Pacific Buddhist Academy Humanities teacher Dr. Benjamin Bruch for his involvement in a groundbreaking research project. His co-author, Prof. Joseph Eska of Virginia Tech, will present their paper Observations Upon the Architecture of the Left Periphery in Celtic; and Cornish at the National University of Ireland Maynooth this Saturday.

Dr. Ben also recently celebrated another milestone when he and other members of the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii were confirmed at a ceremony officiated by His Eminence Gomonshu Kojun Ohtani at the Betsuin. He received his Buddhist name, Shigaku, which means "one who aspires to learn." "It is a privilege to be part of the temple community that includes PBA, a place where I can be both a teacher and student of cultures, languages, and traditions that honor so much compelling history," said Dr. Ben. [JKO readers: Ben Bruch is a member of Aiea Hongwanji and was part of the picture printed in last month's JIKO of the Aiea members who received confirmation.]

New This Fall: PBA Launches Its After School Program!

This opportunity provides homework assistance, help with college entrance exams, and time for students to develop skills for fun. With students' busy lives, they can receive these services after school in our brand new building! "The program's goal is to extend learning opportunities to our students," said Head of School Josh Hernandez Morse. "Students often miss out on taking extra-curricular classes such as guitar or robotics because of their busy academic schedules." Classes are affordable for families and at convenient times after school. PBA's After School Program is still accepting students. Call 808-532-2649 for more information.

Family Memorial Service

In the Japanese Buddhist tradition, families hold memorial services (Nen-ki Hoyo) in memory of our loved ones, and to express our gratitude for Amida Buddha's Infinite Light.

The Buddha's Wisdom and Compassion embrace our loved ones in the land of peace and happiness. May we also remember Amida's embrace on our lives as we remember those who have departed.

If your family would like to arrange a memorial service for your loved one, please call Rev. Yagi at 488-5685. (please leave a message if no one is available). You may schedule the service either before or after the memorial date. The ideal time is when as many family members as possible will attend.

Aiea BWA News

Happy November already! The year is going by so fast. Aiea Hongwanji has been especially busy this year with the Bon Dance in August, the Lay Convention in September, the 115th Anniversary Celebration in October and the upcoming Luau in November. All this in addition to the regular services, dharma school, temple beautification work, Hosha Thursdays and Sundays, and meetings, meetings, meetings.

Thank you to all who worked on and who attended the 115th Anniversary Celebration on October 14 and 15. Thank you to all who brought desserts and other donations. Special thanks to all those who came early to set up and stayed late to clean up on both days. AHM's hard-working 115th Anniversary Committee can be proud of this successful event. A professional photographer took a group photo in the temple and also took family photos on Saturday. The BWA ladies and the Hosha gang men look forward to seeing their group photos.

The next event will be the annual Luau on November 18. Help is needed to prepare the food, to set up and to clean up. Your donations of desserts will be very welcome. The BWA and the Hosha gang, led by Ito Kurasaki, will be happy to recruit new helpers - just contact any of them to find out what you can do.

The BWA will be having its annual End of the Year Luncheon on December 7 at the Royal Palace Chinese Restaurant. We will be working on table decorations, party favors, and door prizes in the next few weeks in addition to continuing with fun craft projects every Thursday morning.

Thank you.

With gassho,
 Arlene Sunada

Aiea Hongwanji Preschool & Kindergarten

PUBLIC RELEASE

On Sept 29, Aiea Hongwanji Preschool, announced its sponsorship of the USDA Child Care Food Program. Meals will be made available to enrolled children/clients at no separate charge without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. Parents'/clients' income determines the amount of money USDA will reimburse us to provide meals to enrolled children/clients. The income eligibility guidelines listed below are used to determine our reimbursement from USDA. Children/clients from households whose annual income is at or below these levels are eligible to be counted for free or reduced-price meal reimbursements.

Family Size (Annual Income)	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	For each Additional Family Member-Add
Free	18,018	24,271	30,524	36,777	43,030	49,283	55,536	61,789	+6,253
Reduced Price	25,641	34,540	43,438	52,337	61,235	70,134	79,032	87,931	+8,899

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

- (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW

FIRST HONPA HONGWANJI MISSION OF HAWAII JOINT CONFERENCE.

Sept 1-3, 2018 at Ala Moana Hotel.

This is the BWA State Conference, State Lay Convention, Ministers' Spouses' meeting, Jr. YBA meeting, and Dharma Educators' Conference all rolled into one. All Hongwanji members are welcome to register and attend the conference, even if they are not attending one of the meetings. There will be a broad range of Dharma-centered workshops in which they can participate.

(We hope to be able to print schedule and/or registration form in the Dec JIKO. For now they are posted on the bulletin board in the AHM hall, and a hard copy is available from the AHM office. And the following is a synopsis.)

To encourage early registration to aid us in planning, the registration fee is $260 until Jan 20, 2018. Late registration fee is $280 and must be submitted by July 20, 2018. After that, registration is accepted on a space available basis.

Schedule: Sat, 9/1—Opening Service, Keynote Speaker Attorney General Doug Chin, followed by dialogue between Bishop and AG Chin, lunch, Lay Convention/Workshops for those who are not attending the Convention. Dinner on your own; BWA Federation Board, Dharma Educators, Jr YBA, Ministers' Spouse meetings.

Sun, 9/2—Service, BWA Conference/Workshops for those not attending the Conference. Following lunch, Leadership talk by Pieper Toyama, then Open House/Pop-up shops, then Workshops, then Sangha in Harmony, and Banquet.

Mon, 9/3—service at Magic Island, bento lunch and fellowship, ending at 9:15am??
