Minister's Message

On February 26, Aiea Hongwanji Preschool kids went excursion to Honolulu Zoo. Prior to that event, I teach and show preschoolers about Animals in the Temple when I had Preschool Temple class. I took pictures of animals including imaginary animals such as Dragons, Birds in the Pure Land to show them and then did finding game.

In addition, for 4yrs and 5yrs class, I talked about a Bird in sutra. Present time, there are a number of issues throughout the world, specifically to do with racism, terrorist do notactivities, nuclear threats, hate, violence and gun issues. These concerns remind me of a story of a bird in the Amida Sutra.

A story of a mythical bird, jivam-jivakas

Once upon a time, there lived a strange bird in a huge banyan tree which stood beside a river. The strange bird had two heads, and only one body. Once, while the bird was flying high in the sky, he saw an apple-shaped fruit lying on the bank of the river. The bird swooped down, picked up the fruit and began to eat it. It was the most delicious fruit the bird had ever eaten. As the bird had two heads, the other head protested, "I'm your brother head. Why don't you let me also eat this tasty fruit?" The first head of the bird replied, "Shut up. You know that we've only one stomach. Whichever head eats, the fruit will go to the same stomach. So it doesn't matter which head eats it. Moreover, I'm the one who found this fruit. So I have the first right to eat it."

Hearing this, the other head became silent. But this kind of selfishness on the part of the first head displeased him very much. One day, while flying, the other head spotted a tree bearing poisonous fruit. The other head immediately descended upon the tree and plucked the fruit from it.

"Please don't eat this poisonous fruit," cried the first head. "If you eat it, both of us will die, because we have a common stomach to digest it."

"Shut up!" shouted the other head. "Since I've plucked this fruit, I've every right to eat it."

The first head began to weep, but the other head didn't care. He wanted to take revenge. He ate the poisonous fruit. As a result, both died.

We can read this story as a stupid tale, however, when we carefully consider this story, it is about me, myself. I often say everything has front and back, which we call "Oneness". When I talked to this story to preschooler I named each head, Alex and Mark. One boy said "my brother is Alex", other girl said Mark is my Dad's name. Oops, sorry. Anyway, even though we don't have same body, we can be a partner or a pair. Husband and wife, brothers, sisters, father and son, mother and daughter, teacher and student, friends, Boss and worker...

If we always fight, hurting each other or even get upset, what will happen?

Shakyamuni Buddha teaches us in the Larger Sutra

All people in the world, parents and children, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives, other family members, and extended family members, should respect and love each other and should not hate and envy each other. They should share their possessions with each other, without being greedy, always speak gently, and live harmoniously without hurting each other.

The Sutra clarifies how important it is to be kind and gentle with each other and live our daily lives harmoniously.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi everyone,

I hope you are in good spirits. We just got back from a really nice trip early this month to Sapporo, Japan to see the Sapporo Snow Festival (Yuki Matsuri). It was a trip on my “bucket list” and I’m glad I went. Have you been to the Snow Festival? It is a “short” hop since there is a Hawaiian Airlines flight nonstop from Honolulu to Sapporo. The JR Express takes you from the New Chitose Airport to Sapporo in about 35 minutes. From the Sapporo train station, it is easy to get a cab or use the subway (our preferred mode of transportation) to get to the hotel.

Every year in February the city hosts the Sapporo Snow Festival. The Snow Festival started with just 6 snow statues made by local high school students in 1950. Over the years, the festival has grown and now there are over 200 snow and ice sculptures on three different sites in Sapporo. More than 2 million visitors from Japan and across the world visit Sapporo during the Snow Festival.

Large and small snow sculptures cover Odori Park, which extends East to West over 7-8 blocks in central Sapporo. In typical Japanese fashion, they encourage one-way traffic through the site. It is crowded and cold. There is lively entertainment—the entertainers perform on a stage made out of snow to entertain the crowds. I especially enjoyed the food booths—grilled and broiled seafood, meat sticks and ramen were so tasty! We had a little hot sake and warmed red wine (just to keep our hands warm) as we dined.

Sapporo is known for ramen, soup curry and seafood. We enjoyed everything that Sapporo offered us. Sapporo is also the home of the Sapporo Beer Museum so we couldn’t miss that! We enjoyed a beer tasting and also had a large lunch (2 hours all you can eat and drink) of beef “Genghis Khan style” with vegetables and beer.

We also took a day trip on the JR Hakodate line to Otaru. Otaru is a small town about 30 minutes (by train) west of Sapporo. Otaru is known for glass works and there are many glass shops and a glass museum. Otaru has a Snow Light Path Festival, which runs at the same time as the Sapporo Snow Festival to attract people from Sapporo. During this time the city is decorated with lights and small snow statues and it is especially pretty along a canal near the bay. It is a smaller celebration, but the atmosphere is very pleasant. Daughter Alyson scheduled us for a glass-blowing session at a local glass shop. We each got to make a small glass item—I made a whiskey glass and we are waiting for it to be mailed to us.

Any trip to Japan is a little too much to eat and drink so have to get back to a normal diet and exercise program. By the way, the Buddhist Women’s Association is planning to take a trip to Hokkaido next year (2019). I’d encourage you to ask one of the BWA women if you are interested. Be well!

Be your own light., Warren Tamamoto

Meditation
 Amida Buddha surrounds all men and all forms of life with Infinite Love and Compassion. Particularly does he send forth loving thoughts to those in suffering and sorrow, those in doubt and ignorance, to those who are striving to attain Truth; and to those whose feet are standing close to the great change men call death, Amida Buddha sends forth oceans of Wisdom and Compassion.

GISEIKAI MESSAGE FROM THE JODO SHINSHU HONGWANJI-HA GOVERNOR GENERAL BISHOP CHIKO IWAGAMI.

On the occasion of the 106th Giseikai of the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii, I humbly extend my appreciation to you the ministers, and sangha representatives from throughout the state of Hawaii, for gathering here to discuss the many concerns being faced today. I would also like to express my heartfelt gratitude to you all for your continuing efforts in propagating Jodo Shinshu and maintaining the temples within your respective districts.

At Hongwanji this past May 31, we were able to duly conclude the Commemoration on the Accession of the Jodo Shinshu Tradition to the 25th Monshu Sennyō that was conducted over a ten-session period totaling 80 days. It enabled us to share this auspicious occasion with nearly four hundred fifty thousand people from both within as well as outside of our religious organization. This was made possible through the support, understanding, and cooperation of everyone, including all affiliate individuals and parties and for that I am truly thankful.

Sennyō Monshu shared his thought in the Shosoku message delivered on the last day of the services as follows, "... through encountering Amida Tathagata's compassionate working we come to recognize our true state, and see that the Buddha's Primal Vow embraces and never abandons us. The sense of security of being embraced in the Buddha's compassion becomes the support in our daily life and empowers us to become actively engaged in society." Thus, we are expected to not only receive the Buddha's working ourselves but also become actively involved in society and its activities to share our indebtedness with others, both as an individual and religious organization who appreciate the Nembutsu teaching, and also the sense of security that is accordingly brought to us.

The Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha General Promotion Plan includes a clause that stipulates intensifying the framework of international propagation. In addition to reciprocal cooperation between the overseas districts, I eagerly anticipate each of the districts to build connections all the more closer with us at the Kyoto headquarters in order to cope with a variety of social issues, and in so doing, contribute to realize a society in which everyone can live with peace of mind.

Although the Commemoration of Accession has successfully come to a close, additional commemoration events including Sennyō Monshu's visitation to the overseas districts and regional-districts will continue to be carried out. We sincerely hope his visitation will be a great opportunity for those who were not able to participate in the Commemoration services to meet him in person.

In closing, it is my hope that the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii will continue to prosper and that many fruitful results will arise from this annual meeting.

Newly installed Officers, Advisors, Directors, Sanmu and Kanji Ministers of Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii.

Resolution of Appreciation presented to Mrs. Rose Nakamura.

TAIKO FESTIVAL. Tickets Are On Sale. Reserve Your Seat! Hawaii's premier high school taiko program will celebrate a showcase of student, faculty and guest talent on Sunday, March 25, at 4 p.m. at the Pearl City Cultural Center. The theme of Pacific Buddhist Academy's 12th annual Taiko Festival is Koi-Koi - Let's Go!

In Hanafuda, playing cards of Japanese origin, "koi-koi" is said when a player wants to continue the hand. Hyaku Sen Ki Kai Taiko, PBA's premier taiko group, is no exception, renewing itself with vigor and high octane spirit year after year.

Individual tickets for the festival are $25 for general admission, or $20 for seniors, students, and PBA alumni. They may be purchased by calling 808-532-2649, in person at PBA's Main Office at 1754 Lusitana Street, or online at www.pacificbuddhistacademy.org. New Exhibition at the East-West Center: During the new exhibition Bhutan: Gross Nation Happiness, three artist monks in residence at the Center built a sand mandala (a visual representation of the Himalayan Buddhist cosmos) as the center piece in the gallery during the week of February 26. ## Aiea BWA News

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Dana Day fund at the Feb. 11 Dana Day and Nirvana Day Service. In the spirit of Selfless Giving, the BWA did a Dana project led by Arlene Sunada and Marcia Koyanagi. We played Bingo games at the Lotus Adult Day Care Center. We made Dana Day cards for all the seniors and made 30 festive gift bags to give as prizes. The staff and the seniors enjoyed the activity. The BWA is also busy making walker bags that were requested by Lotus.

We were all looking forward to the visit of the Soba Chef on Feb. 18 but unfortunately the Soba Demo was cancelled due to bad weather in Japan that made it too difficult for the Chef to come to Hawaii. The Hosha kitchen team (Elaine Kutaka, Sally Ohira, Helen Takenouchi, Elaine Yamanoha) quickly changed plans and instead made a delicious lunch for the people who were there on Sunday. Ito Kurasaki made gau and also started preparation of takuwan to be sold at Eshinni-Kakushinni Day on April 22.

A major undertaking in the month of March is the quarterly Temple Beautification Day on Sunday March 11, beginning at 8:00 am. Please come and bring your families to learn and to help. The work is not too hard and refreshments and lunch will be provided.

Mark your calendar for April 22, 2018 when the BWA "Craft Sale" following the Eshinni-Kakushinni Day service will focus on selling "homemade" food items and desserts. A selection of craft items will also be on sale. Bring your family and friends.

President

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS

We would like to extend a very warm welcome to new members Donna Morita, and Dennis and Sharyn Sekine.. We look forward to their participation in our temple activities. Please encourage your family and friends to join Aiea Hongwanji. Prospective members should call the office at 487-2626 for the paperwork.
