Minister's Message

Bon Dance season is around the corner! I humbly ask for your help and support again. Our Hatsubon (First Obon) Service will be held on August 19 and Bon Service and Dance will be held on August 25.

During Obon season, a lot of Temples hang Teruteru Bozu under their Yagura roof. I have heard some Minister said "Take that off! We don't believe petitioner prayer or magic!" Yes, Jodo-Shinshu firmly rejects any use of its teachings to gain worldly or secular benefits. The Jodo-Shinshu Preamble says, "We shall not conduct petitionary prayers for secular benefits or magical acts, and shall not rely on fortune telling and other superstitious acts." This lasting dislike for such acts supports Shinran Shonin's Stance against using religion to gain worldly benefits.

In contrast, there are many temples of other schools in Japan today that actively foster benefits. Any foreign visitor can easily see the fortune papers tied to tree branches seeking everything from success in College entrance exams to household prosperity, longevity and protection from fire. Temple visitors often direct incense smoke with their hands onto the parts of the body that are giving them aches and pains. That the favorite spot for this "smoke blessing" is the top of the head shows the high value of brain power in the competitive Japanese society.

These requests are certainly not evil in the secular sense, but they go against the Buddhist principle (Second of Four Noble Truth) that desire is the cause of suffering. Shinran Shonin was, thus, strongly against such practices.

However, I wonder what happened if the Minister just rejecting without giving an explanation to people. I felt this is part of my job to search and study, then share with people. Here is result.

-Teruteru bozu (てるてる坊主) - The Sunshine Monk

Teruteru bozu are made from white cloth or tissue bound together with a bit of string. They are usually hung upright from the eaves of a house, and are used as talisman in the hopes that tomorrow will bring good weather.

In some areas of Japan the dolls are used by farmers on days when they hope for rain instead of sun. The dolls are hung head-downwards and called furefure bozu or ameame bozu (both meaning roughly The Rain Monk).

And although teruteru bozu is the most common name, they are also known as teretere bozu and sometimes hiyori bozu.

Teruteru bozu appeared around the middle of the Edo period in Japan. In the book "Kiyu Shoran" (Inspection of Diversions) the author writes of the custom that if the teruteru bozu is successful, and the following day is clear, then its head is washed with sacred sake and the doll is sent into a river to be washed away. In Edo period Japan, rivers were thought to connect to the afterlife and the realm of the gods, so sending the teruteru bozu down the river was returning it to home. The origins of the custom are vague. Some say that it comes from China, where Untou Ningyo (cloud-clearing dolls) and Ameku Musume (rain banishing girls) are just a few of the similar customs that can be found.

Again, In the Essential of Jodo Shinshu, "Guided by the teaching of Shinran Shonin, we shall listen to the compassionate calling of Amida Tathagata and recite the Nembutsu. While always reflecting on ourselves, amidst our feelings of regret and joy, we shall live expressing our gratitude without depending on petitionary prayer and superstition".

So, from this season, let us see Teruteru Bozu as a Kawaii (cute) charm, and let's enjoy Dharma and Sangha.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone,

I hope you are well. We had a nice time at the Oahu District Joint Gotan-E Service and Song Fest at Waipahu Hongwanji on May 20th. The Dharma School Teachers of Oahu planned the event for the Oahu district temples. Laurie Rubin was the guest speaker. Laurie is a co-founder of Ohana Arts, a performing arts company for teens and pre-teens. Laurie spoke about how music has opened many doors for her—in her work, in play and in shaping her family. Laurie reminded us of the Buddhist concept of Impermanence. She reminded us to accept our limitations, be grateful for what we have and do the best we can with what we have. Thank you, Laurie for sharing with us. Rev. Jeffrey Soga and his Waipahu assistants performed a skit for the group as well. Following the service, the participants were divided randomly into three groups. We were taught a song by a minister “coach” and then performed that number for the entire group. We had tasty bento lunch to close the day.

The same afternoon we rushed over to the Aiea Bowling Alley for the “Buddha Bowling Bash”. About forty participants from the Oahu District had a great time bowling, and then everyone headed down to our Social Hall for refreshments to close out a very busy day. Looking back, a good way to spend a relaxing and fun time with fellow Sangha members.

On Friday, June 8th we are having an “Aloha Party” for two of our members, Wade and Carol. Wade’s job is taking him to “the United States of America” (just kidding, we are the USA). We are going to miss them. They serve on the Board of Directors and Wade has been our Treasurer. They are active members of the Sr. YBA. They attend services and all of our AHM activities. They are leaders in helping to organize our Annual O-Bon celebration. That is not a complete list of the ways that they help our temple. W&C, please retire to Aiea. Sangha members please call the office if you are able to attend on Friday, June 8th.

This is a good time to remember others who are working hard to keep our facilities in good shape. Thank you, as always to the Buddhist Women’s Association for the delicious meals and the Hosha gang for their hard work maintaining the buildings and grounds. Thank you especially to Allan and Aki for installing the air conditioning in the back of the temple. The ladies can now arrange their flowers in comfort. Also, thanks to Mark for replacing the timer for the Social Hall. I noticed that Mark and George were working late on Sunday afternoon and now the lawn in front of the temple looks immaculate!

With both palms together,

Warren Tamamoto

Meditation

Amida Buddha surrounds all men and all forms of life with Infinite Love and Compassion. Particularly does he send forth loving thoughts to those in suffering and sorrow, those in doubt and ignorance, to those who are striving to attain Truth; and to those whose feet are standing close to the great change men call death, Amida Buddha sends forth oceans of Wisdom and Compassion.

INTRODUCTION OF NEW MINISTER. Rev. Kerry

Kiyohara is kaikyōshi minister serving the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii. He received tokudo ordination in 2016, graduated Chuo Bukkyo Gakuin Seminary and received kyōshi certification in 2018.

Rev. Kerry Kiyohara previously built profitable brands and businesses over two decades as a creative copywriter, corporate executive, and strategy consultant. He graduated with BA and MBA degrees from University of Southern California, and worked in Tokyo, Beijing, and Shanghai.

Rev. Kerry Kiyohara speaks English, Japanese, basic Spanish, survival Chinese, and struggles with da kine Hawaiian Creole English. He is very happy to be called 'grandpa' by a precious six-year-old granddaughter.

Rev. Kerry Kiyohara is currently taking the New Minister's Orientation at Headquarters and Honpa Hongwanji Hawaii Betsuin. He will be assigned to Makawao Hongwanji Mission on Maui as its Resident Minister as of June 1, 2018.

COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL CONCERNS. From: Dean Sakamoto, Chair of the Committee on Social Concerns. The Office of the Bishop and the Committee on Social Concerns (CSC), together, have been in contact with temple ministers and presidents for flood damage assessments on the Island of Kauai and Oahu and for volcanic disaster related impacts on the Island of Hawaii. While we have not received reports of any temple damages, unfortunately, we have been advised that some temple members from Kauai have been impacted by the flood and several temple members on the Island of Hawaii have been impacted by the volcano disaster.

"Omimai", a Japanese custom that is often used to enquire (inquire) and call or visit someone who is ill, such as when visiting someone in the hospital. The CSC uses the term "Omimai" to reach out and respectfully express our concern to a member (or a temple) who have experienced some type of unexpected hardship such as property damage from a disaster.

At the May 5th Board of Directors meeting, the CSC reported the following Emergency Disaster related actions (coordinated with the Office of the Bishop):

- A donation of $4,000 to Kauai Hongwanji Council (KHC) with KHC to determine and distribute funds to organization(s) and/or individual(s) working towards flood disaster relief efforts on Kauai. Suggested list of organizations was provided by CSC to KHC.

- A donation of $1,000 (via Kapaa Hongwanji) to the Hanalei Nihonjin Kai Cemetery (5013c) damaged by flood. Kapaa Hongwanji will coordinate and distribute funds.
- Omimai of $500 to a Kapaa Hongwanji member affected by the flood (property flooded).
- Omimai of $500 to a Kapaa Hongwanji member affected by the flood (property flooded).
- Omimai of $500 to a West Kauai Hongwanji member affected by the flood (property flooded).
- A donation of $1,100 to the Hawaii State VOAD (Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster)

The Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii continues to assess the volcano disaster impacts to our members (and temples), and because of the unpredictable nature and the potential damages that an active volcano may cause, this assessment will take some time as conditions continue to change over time. We have initially requested the Hawaii Island temple ministers and presidents at Puna Hongwanji and Hilo Betsuin to keep the Office of the Bishop and the CSC informed as information becomes available, and also to provide assistance to those in need to the extent that a temple or a member is able to provide.

At this time, the CSC is not planning to set-up a special collection and will rely on available funds from the Social Welfare Fund which is replenished through donations from annual Social Concerns fund drives. We are grateful for the generous donations from our members and the CSC will continue to monitor the fund balance to ensure that a minimum level remains available in the fund, especially considering the 2018 Hurricane season will approach soon.

It is understandable that members may want to make a donation with good intentions to help, and our Hawaii Island committee representative, Mr. Ken Okimoto, advises: "Before you donate, pay attention to what kinds of donations are requested; be sure who or what responsible group is willing and able to handle your donation; don't just donate whatever to whoever."

Monetary donations are usually quicker, easier to coordinate, and allows maximum flexibility for the recipient to meet unmet needs. It is the donor's responsibility to research an organization or a fund is valid and will be used for disaster relief efforts before a donation is made. If any assistance is needed, please contact the CSC.

I would also like our members to know that the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii is an official member of the Hawaii VOAD (Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster). The Hawaii VOAD consists of non-profit organizations, faith-based groups, and partner government agencies. Please visit: www.hivoad.communityos.org for information. Also, information on the Puna lava flow can be found at www.punalavaflow.com. Disaster preparedness is everyone's responsibility.

ESHINNI 750TH MEMORIAL SERVICE. In April, Bishop Eric Matsumoto and Hawaii Federation BWA president Lois Toyama attended the 750th Memorial Service for Eshinni-sama. The services were held at Honzan over a two-day period. Representatives from the World Federation of Buddhist Women's Associations participated in a very formal processional at the beginning of the service. Japanese BWA representatives dressed in beautiful kimono, and all the representatives wore the beautiful blue montoshikisho embossed with magnolia that are the official montoshikisho of the BWA.

Gagaku musicians opened the service as many ministers marched in wearing their formal attire. Three hundred members of the Japan BWA, as well as many others who wished to honor Eshinni, filled the hall. After one service, the president of the Japan Federation of BWA read a narration of the life of Eshinni and Shinran. This reading was interspersed with four songs that capture their life in Echigo and the continuing legacy of Eshinni.

Immediately after the second service, the World BWA Representatives traveled to Echigo (modern day Niigata) to visit the area where Shinran Shonin and Eshinni-sama spent many years. They saw cold, windy Kotogahama Beach where Shinran was exiled. They visited Kokufu Betsuin which stands on the site of Takegahana Cottage where Shinran and Eshinni once lived. Bishop Matsumoto and Lois placed lei at the stone pagoda which is believed to be Eshinni's burial site.

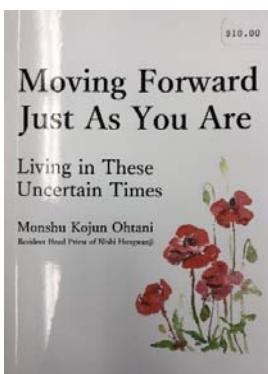

Fittingly, at the World Federation BWA meeting which was held in conjunction with the Eshinni 750th Memorial services, representatives voted on a resolution to honor Eshinni and her daughter Kakushinni. An Eshinni-Kakushinni Endowed Chair will be established at the Institute of Buddhist Studies in Berkeley. There will be a worldwide campaign to raise a $3 million endowment. The interest from this endowment will be used to hire a professor at IBS. This position will honor the impact which Eshinni and Kakushinni had on the establishment of the Hongwanji and will train future ministers who will promote the vision and passion of these two women.

A donation of $300 (30 people giving $10 each) from every temple around the world will make this dream a reality. BWA Presidents and temple presidents will be asking for donations at your temples. We hope that everyone will join in this opportunity to honor Eshinni-sama during this year of her 750th Memorial and to spread the Dharma for future generations.

Coffee, water and snacks will be available so please come. Your donations of homemade goodies or other edibles will be gratefully accepted. Thank you to Arlene Sunada who has made sure that there are refreshments every Sunday until this becomes a regular tradition.

Thank you to all who contributed to the success of the April 22 Eshinni and Kakushinni Day service and Church Bazaar. Food items, many of them donated by member makers, were very popular.

The BWA will be helping to fund the attendance of 3 Aiea Jr. YBA members to the Junior YBA State Convention in June. The Juniors wrote a very nice letter requesting support and we are happy to help.

Thank you to Helen Takenouchi, Thelma Kawaguchi, Sally Ohira and Elaine Kutaka, - the faithful crew that makes sure there are fresh flowers and greenery in the nokotsudo and at every Sunday service. Your work to arrange the flowers and to clean up is very much appreciated by all.

Have you noticed the attractive displays of beautiful large anthuriums at the altar? Thank you to Jean and Aki Okamoto for bringing the anthuriums from their yard.

GOLDEN CHAIN OF LOVE

I am a link in Amida Buddha's Golden Chain of Love that stretches around the world. I must keep my link bright and strong. I will try to be kind and gentle to every living thing and protect all who are weaker than myself. I will try to think pure and beautiful thoughts, to say pure and beautiful words and to do pure and beautiful deeds, knowing on what I do now depends not only on my happiness or unhappiness but also that of others. May every link in Amida Buddha's Golden Chain of Love become bright and strong and may we all attain Perfect Peace. Namo Amida Butsu.

members have signed up for the first ever Hongwanji Joint Conference from Sept 1st to 3rd at the Ala Moana Hotel. But don't worry... there's always room for you! Registration is open until July 20th. Forms are available on the Hongwanji website or from your temple president.

The theme, "Embrace Change – Harmony (Accept Differences)" gives you the opportunity to select from a wide variety of workshops. Express harmony in music with taiko, chanting, ukulele, and gatha singing. Deepen your awareness of harmony in Buddhism by learning Buddhism through contemporary songs, by attending a panel of ministers who will speak on peace and harmony in Buddhist teachings, by participating in a discussion of Monshu Kojun Ohtani's new book, or by taking a photography session and learning to see with fresh vision.

You can explore harmony in society in workshops on issues being addressed by our social concerns committee, on LGBTQ awareness, on green Hongwanji, and on Islam in a panel presentation by members of the Manoa Mosque.

These are just a sampling of the workshops available. We hope you'll take advantage of these opportunities to deepen your awareness and sense of interconnectedness. We are so fortunate to have so many people willing to share their skills and knowledge with us.

Of course, in addition to services and workshops, there's the opportunity to talk story with your friends from across the state. Saturday night is a free night, and the Okinawan Festival is just down the block at the Hawaii Convention Center. Sunday night is our banquet with great food and good entertainment. It's a weekend not to be missed... see you there!

Dear Aiea Hongwanji 'Ohana & Friends,

As the Obon season approaches, let us stop to reflect and remember our dearly departed. We are giving our families an opportunity to purchase a memorial windcatcher. Cost is $20 each, payable to Aiea Hongwanji Mission.

Deadline for ordering is Friday, July 13, 2018.

Windcatchers are available on a limited, first-come, first-served basis, so please turn in your requests and payments in a timely manner.
